

Sport/Recreation Information / Bocce

Contact Names: Tom Kelly (tom.kelly@state.or.us 503-580-9482)
Shannon Talbott (Shannon.talbot@state.or.us 503-510-7029)
Bev Young (bev.young@state.or.us 503-947-3244)

Event: Bocce

Dates: Friday, August 24- Monday, September 3

Location: Hart Gardens

Sponsors: United States Specialist Sports Association (USSSA)
www.ussa.com
Mark Terpening

Summary: Have you ever thought about trying a new and exciting game? How about a game that helps improve your bowling, golf, and even shuffle board game? Then you should try your hands at Bocce! Bocce is a competitive game of skill it can help sharpen your reflexes and judgment – and stimulates good fellowship among players. It is played by people of all ages. Here at the Oregon State Fair we are going to have experienced players on hand to help show how Bocce is played.

Photo by Spencer T Tucker